

Call 2-1-1 for Help

When you are unsure how to find help and want to connect with community services, Dial 2-1-1 for Free Information and Referrals to services in your town

Dial 2-1-1

Text your zip code to 898211

Visit <https://pa211.communityos.org> to search on your own.

PA 2-1-1 is a comprehensive health and human services information and referral service for all of South Central Pennsylvania. We maintain a database of information about the following groups that provide services or meet in your community: Non-profit Agencies, Governmental Programs, Support Groups and Clubs.

Phone calls are:

- Free-local and toll free numbers
- Accessible-translation provided for all languages and services for the deaf and hearing impaired through the PA relay service
- Anonymous-all calls are confidential
- Calls are answered 24 hours, 7 days a week. Information is also available through the web at <https://pa211.communityos.org>

Call 2-1-1 if you have a problem or question.

I have an elderly neighbor who needs help with getting meals, light housekeeping and personal care. Who can I call?

A neighborhood dog runs loose and I'm worried he'll hurt my children. Who can I call?

I have an employee with a drinking problem. He has been a good worker and I would like to help him. Who can I call for help?

I will need a wheelchair for about six weeks. Is there anywhere I can borrow one?

We will refer you to services that help with:

Aging Issues
Civil/Human Rights
Counseling
Emergency Services
Housing Services
Health Concerns
Veteran Services

Animal Welfare
Clothing
Donations
Employment
Mental Health
Domestic Violence
Heating Assistance

Child Care
Clubs & Special Interest Groups
Drug & Alcohol Programs
Food
Support Groups
Re-entry Information
Volunteering and more!

PA 2-1-1 is a program of CONTACT Helpline funded in part by the United Way.