

REPTILE WEEK 2016

July 2- July 10

Richard M. Nixon County Park
5922 Nixon Drive, York, PA 17403

Mon-Sat 9:00am-4:30pm, Sun 12:00-4:30pm

All inclusive admission: $2.00/person, members and children 4 and under, free!

Spark your curiosity!

Traverse the globe with your herpetology passport to observe more than 25 species of live critters. Engage in hands-on learning at education stations where you'll get to touch a turtle, lizard, and snake. Vote on your favorite reptile artwork and create some artwork of your own!

Special Program Schedule:

Saturday, July 2, 10:30-11:30am—Live Reptile Show with Forgotten Friend Reptile Sanctuary!

Saturday, July 2, 1:00-2:00pm—Live Reptile Show with Forgotten Friend Reptile Sanctuary!

Sunday, July 3, 1:00-2:30pm—Gone Herping! Nature Trek

Sunday, July 3, 2:30-4:00pm—Snake Dissection!

Monday-Friday, July 4-8—Free Kids Crafts Available

Monday-Friday, July 4-8—10am, Animal Feedings

Saturday, July 9, 10:30-11:30am—Live Reptile Show with Forgotten Friend Reptile Sanctuary!

Saturday, July 9, 1:00-2:00pm—Live Reptile Show with Forgotten Friend Reptile Sanctuary!

Sunday, July 10, 1:00-2:30pm—Gone Herping! Nature Trek

Sunday, July 10, 2:30-4:00pm—Snake dissection!

*Please remember:

- Visitors are not permitted to bring pets to the park.
- Groups of 10 or more please call in advance to register.

Contact Richard M. Nixon County Park:
(717) 428-1961

