

Drugs, Alcohol and Teen Suicide

Dec. 18, 2014

Description:

Suicide is a preventable public health problem. This course will address the influence/effects drug and alcohol issues have on teen suicide rate; what we can do to intervene; and how these interventions may help prevent our children from dying prematurely.

Trainer:

Ms. O'Toole has serviced the Morgantown WV community for 25+ years in a multitude of human service venues, and is excited to be a part of the WV Therapy & Wellness Center. She brings a holistic approach to the Center, as she is a trained masters' level psychotherapist, EMDR therapist, energetic healing practitioner and a licensed minister. Her clinical areas of expertise are trauma & addiction; family & relationship counseling.

Heidi is also an educator and professional trainer. She holds adjunct teaching positions for both WVU's and Marshall's graduate counseling departments, and presents workshops nationally on numerous mental health and healing topics.
