- The party ending a period of custody of the Child/ shall provide transportation for the custody exchanges.
- The parties shall meet at _____
(name of meeting place) to exchange custody of the Child
- Other:

At all times the child is being transported, appropriate passenger restraints must be utilized. No person transporting the child shall consume alcoholic beverages prior to transporting the child. No person transporting the child shall be under the influence of alcoholic beverages or illegal substances.

8. Relocation of the Party:

A relocation is defined as a change in a residence of the child which significantly impairs the ability of a non-relocating party to exercise custodial rights 23 pa.C.S.5322. No relocation shall occur unless every individual who has custody rights to the child consents to the proposed relocation or the Court approves the proposed relocation. If a party seeks to relocate, that party shall notify every other individual who has custody rights to the child. Both parties must follow the statutory requirements contained in 23Pa.C.S.5337. Specifically, the relocating party must notify every other individual who has custody rights to the child by certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice must then comply with the following requirements:

Notice must be sent no later than:

- (1) The 60th day before the date of the proposed relocation; or
- (2) The 10th day after the date that the individual knows of the relocation if the individual did not know and could not reasonably know of the relocation in sufficient time to comply with the 60 day notice requirement and it is not reasonably possible to delay the date of relocation so as to comply with the 60 day notice requirement.

Unless otherwise excused by law, the following information must be included in the notice:

- (1) The address of the intended new residence.
- (2) The mailing address, if not the same as the address of the intended new residence.
- (3) Names and ages of the individuals in the new residence, including individuals who intend to live in the new residence.

- (4) The home telephone number of the intended new residence, if applicable.
- (5) The name of the new school district and school
- (6) The date of the proposed relocation
- (7) The reasons for the proposed relocation
- (8) A proposal for a revised custody schedule
- (9) Any other information which the party proposing the relocation deems appropriate
- (10) A counter-affidavit as provided under subsection (d)(1) which can be used to object to the proposed relocation and modification of the custody order
- (11) A warning to the non-relocating party that if the non-relocating party does not file with the Court an objection to the proposed relocation within 30 days after receipt of notice, that party shall be foreclosed from objecting to relocation.

If any of the aforementioned information is not known when the notice is sent but is later made known to the party seeking relocation, then that party shall promptly inform every individual who received notice.

If the non-relocating parent objects to the proposed move he/she must do so by filing the counter-affidavit with the Court and the other party within 30 days. The notice of objection to the opposing party must be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested. If no objection is made in the manner set forth above then it shall be presumed that the non-relocating parent has consented to the proposed relocation and the Court will not accept testimony challenging the relocation in any further review of the custodial arrangements.

The Court shall hold an expedited full hearing on the proposed relocation after a timely objection has been filed and before relocation occurs. The Court may permit relocation before a full hearing if the Court finds that exigent circumstances exist.

By the Court,
