Commonwealth Law Enforcement Network (CLEAN)
"Statement of Liability, Security and Confidentiality"

I fully understand the security and confidentiality requirements of my working with the Commonwealth Law Enforcement Assistance Network (CLEAN) and the National Crime Information Center (NCIC).

I understand that access to these systems is permitted only for official law enforcement and criminal justice purposes and any information received from these systems CANNOT be disseminated beyond law enforcement and criminal justice agencies designated for service by my terminal. I acknowledge that the information contained in these systems is confidential and is protected by written agreement with the Pennsylvania State Police and statutory provisions that prevent improper or unauthorized dissemination.

I understand that I may not use these systems for any personal purposes and that the use of these systems must be directly related to the criminal justice/law enforcement purposes for which I have been hired.

I also understand that I may not assist any other person in using these systems improperly. Should I observe any violation of these systems in terms of confidentiality, dissemination or security, I will immediately notify my Terminal Agency Coordinator (TAC) or the Pennsylvania State Police CLEAN Administrative Section.

Finally, I realize that any violation of systems security, confidentiality, dissemination, or my toleration of a violation by anyone else may lead to administrative action being taken against myself and/or my Terminal Agency for improper disclosure or misuse of the data derived from these systems.
